

	Sitreps, operational orders and media releases assembled for the Sar Officer and information is distributed within the Sarcc.
	Hand over to incoming shift is clear and includes relevant information.
Work in a Marine	Closing the Sarcc: Records and information are filed in accordance with SOPs
	Communications reset to stand-by.
	Sarcc is cleaned, restocked/ serviced for rapid reactivation as needed.
	Statistical summaries are prepared.
	Signs and symptoms of stress are recognised and promptly reported.
	Other organisations notified of Sarcc closure, debriefing concluded.
Elementary navigation	Completion of Bar Crossing Course	Notes.
	Local Orientation (Leads)	Notes.
Local Information Known	Local Orientation (Fuel)	Notes.
	Local Orientation (Marina/moorings)	Notes.
	Tidal Difference	Notes.
	Sarcc Nav Exercises 1-6							Sar Ex 1-10
Weather	Sarcc Weather Exercises 1-6						Sar Ex 1-10
Transmit /receive	Transmits and receives by mar. radio.	CERT No.*
	27Mhz
Tunes, transmits & receives information by marine radio or telephone.	VHF
	MF/HF
	UHF
	DSC
	EPIRB Scanner (& alert)
Rostered on duty Radio 1 Operator		Date		*Attach RPL evidence
Approved by		Date
The named trainee has successfully completed the Sarcc Competency assessment checklist.										